

James Michael Murphy

April 22, 1959 - October 6, 2023

James Michael Murphy, 64, of Old Bridge New Jersey passed away on Friday October 6, 2023 in Matawan surrounded by the love of his family and friends.

Born April 22, 1959 on Staten Island, New York; Jim was the son of the late John and Anna Murphy and was raised in the Oakwood Beach section of Staten Island.

After graduating from New Dorp High School in 1977, Jim enlisted in the US Navy and proudly served from 1978 to 1982. Upon finishing his active duty service to our country Jim served in the US Navy Reserves until 1984. During his time in the Navy, Jim was stationed in Norfolk, VA and served on the USS America.

In 1983 Jim would marry the love of his life, Theresa Cossentino. The couple were married in Blessed Sacrament Church, West Brighton, and the reception took place at the Oriental Manor in Brooklyn. Theresa recalls the night of the wedding as one of the happiest times of her life, even though the couple did experience a flat tire on their way home. Two years later, Jim and Terri had their only child, Cassandra.

Jim worked with the New York City Department of Sanitation on Staten Island.

He spent time at the Fresh Kills Landfill and also SI 1 on Jersey Street. Jim enjoyed spending his free time playing the guitar, watching the Dallas Cowboys, and was a fan of the Grateful Dead.

He loved to cook and be surrounded by family and friends. He especially loved spending time with his Granddaughter Audrianna who was his best friend. Jim and Audrianna shared a profound love and she gave life to Jimmy.

Jim is survived by his beloved wife of 40 years Theresa, his loving daughter Cassandra, his cherished granddaughter Audrianna, son in law Michael DePiano; his siblings John and his wife Mary, Sally and her husband Kevin, Michael and his wife Nayelli. He also was adored by countless nieces and nephews who have nothing but happy memories of Jimmy.
