

James P Noonan

February 2, 1945 - August 9, 2021

James P Noonan, 76 of the Laurence Harbor section of Old Bridge passed away on Monday, August 9, 2021, at home..

Born Friday, February 2, 1945 in Newark, New Jersey, he was the son of the late William and Agnes Noonan.

Mr. Noonan was a Vietnam Veteran, serving in the United States Army. After obtaining an Honorable Discharge, James would work at General Motors. Many years ago he worked as an antiques dealer for Johnny Millionaire in Florida, and also spent time over the road as a truck driver. James always was there to help people, often completing many side jobs when asked to help. James loved to cook and was the grill master at many BBQs.

James was predeceased by his brothers Thomas J, Noonan and Edward R Noonan.

James is survived by his brother William G. Noonan of Monroe, and by his sister Maureen P Noonan of Old Bridge. He has nieces and nephews that loved him dearly, as well as his Godchildren.

In lieu of flowers please consider making a donation in James' memory to Wounded Warrior Project: <https://www.woundedwarriorproject.org/donate>

A gathering of family and friends will take place on Tuesday, August 17, 2021 from 10:00am - 11:45am followed by burial with Military Honors at the Brigadier General William C. Doyle Veterans Cemetery, Wrightstown, NJ.
