“ Dear Mom, Just wanted to tell you it has been a privilege and an honor being your daughter. I watched you fight the good fight, and all the while, you never complained. You repeatedly told me you were uncomfortable, yet never in pain. I thank you for the opportunity to be able to have been there for you, even though, you never wanted any help. I will always pray that I can be half the friend, half the Mom, that you were and then I will be happy. I will never forget your definition of faith, Forsake All (others) I Trust Him! I owe Jesus big time for giving me almost 3 more years with you, and allowing you to go in peace. I want to thank you for taking care of Brett, Tyler, Cody and, of course, Katie. Yes Mom, they are all doing great and are okay, and so are we. Rest in peace with Daddy, know I love you, and I will never, ever forget you....Until we meet again.....
