“ We were very sad to learn of Jan's untimely passing. Jan was such a caring and giving person. We spent many happy hours raising our children together all the way through high school. We had many good times as band parents. Unfortunately, we were not able to extend our condolences in person to Don, Chris and Jennifer. Jan will be greatly missed and we send our most heartfelt sympathies to the family. Mary Ann and Don, Hamburg, NJ

“ I never met Jan, but I shared many games with her on FB and felt that she was truly a friend. I hope someday we will meet in the arms of God! My condolences to you, Jennifer. My mother passed away 12 years ago, but I miss her always and feel her with me. I laugh at the funny things she used to say and keep the happy memories of her close to my heart. Just know that today, she is standing in the light of God. I look forward to meeting her.

“ As one of Jennifer's best friends, I had the pleasure of knowing Jan. She was one of the most genuine and sincere people I have yet to meet, and she raised her daughter to be exactly the same way. Even across all the miles, Jennifer talked to her mother every day. Now they will hold each other in their hearts forever. My sincerest wishes of comfort and peace to Jennifer and her family.

“ Every morning I signed on and read her heartfelt greetings. We laughed as we shared our lives. I never met Jan in person, but I feel through our daily chats for 2 years that I knew her. She was an daily inspiration to me and I now to many others. She brought a smile to my face as she shared the antics of Harley & Macy, her travels to her daughter's and the wonderful stories of her grandchildren. Jan's spirit will live on everyday in my heart....and may we all strive to be as extraordinary as she was.Linda R. Blakely...a Friend
