Jean Bruno, passed away peacefully on January 15, 2024, in Matawan, New Jersey. She was born on July 4, 1927, in Brooklyn, NY, to Charles and Louise Dilegame.

Jean and Alexander raised their family in Queens, New York, before moving to New Jersey. They were married for over 50 years, building a strong and loving foundation for their children and grandchildren.

Aside from her dedication to her family, Jean was an active member of her community. She volunteered at Raritan Bay Hospital, where she spent countless hours working in the gift shop, brightening the lives of patients and staff with her warm smile and caring nature.

In her free time, Jean enjoyed indulging in her hobbies and interests. She loved playing bingo and cards, attending meetings in the assisted living where she voiced her opinions with unwavering determination. Cooking, especially her famous eggplant parmigiana, brought her great joy. Jean also enjoyed trips to Atlantic City, where she tried her luck at the casino, and reveled in the magic of the theater and music. Above all, she treasured attending her grandchildren's little league games, cheering them on with pride and love.

Jean Bruno will be remembered as a woman who lived life to the fullest, spreading love and kindness to everyone she encountered. She had a heart of gold and a contagious spirit that brightened the lives of those around her. Jean will be greatly missed by all those who knew and loved her.

Jean was preceded in death by her parents Charles and Louise Dilegame, beloved husband, Alexander Bruno, and her brother, Frank Dilegame.

She is survived by her loving sons, Richard, and his wife, Cynthia Borgese-Bruno, Robert and Eileen Bruno. Jean also leaves behind her dear siblings, Rae Gula, Theresa and James Sanborn, Anna Napolitano, and Julie Montano.

Jean cherished her role as a grandmother. She leaves behind her adoring grandchildren: Richard and Sarah Bruno, Matthew and Jacqueline Bruno, Robert and Larysa Bruno, Dayna Bruno, Corey Bruno, and Christopher and Danielle Bruno. She also leaves behind numerous nieces and nephews who will forever remember her warm heart.

Also by her adored great-grandchildren, Ciara, Chase, Connor, Jaxon, and Ellie, who brought immense joy to Jean's life. She cherished every moment spent with them, creating lasting memories and sharing her love.

In lieu of flowers, the family kindly requests that donations be made to St. Jude Children's Research Hospital, an organization that was close to Jean's heart.
