“ The first day when I moved to Staten Island and your brother Vinny, introduce me to you and your sister Anne-Marie. I was then introduced to the rest of your family. That’s when one fun all started. We shared so many laughs one some heartaches true I thought we would’ve still been together more. I’m so sad to know that you are no longer here. Our memories will linger on. Until we meet again Marietta Antico

“ I'll never forget our shopping sprees. She would pick out all my outfits. She was kind, generous, loving and accepting. She treated me like a daughter. I know this because she would always scream at me when I didn't finish my food. I will hold her very close to my heart. I wasn't blessed with just one mother, I was blessed by two. RIP Jeanie

“ Jeannie was my dear friend at Renaissance. We also happen to be next-door neighbors, which was a lot of fun. since we were both by ourselves some evenings we would just call each other and chat on the phone about what we were watching on TV. We often went out and had a lot of fun together. Jeannie was a very special person and got along extremely well with different generations. My children loved her. We never had a conversation where her husband Michael wasn't brought up. She was crazy in love with him! It warmed my heart to hear her stories about Michael her children and her grandchildren. She was very family oriented and loved everyone in her life. She will be greatly missed. 🙏
