“ *Dear George and Eddie, So sorry to hear of Jeanette's passing. We worked together at Talking Tops for a long time. After moving to Lancaster County, PA, we always looked for you and Jeanette at the Mud auction. She was a fun lady and we shared a lot of good times even at work. She even liked my father in law's name when she was pregnant with Eddie. My heart is hurting so much right now that we didn't stay in touch. Peace and Blessings.

“ Jeanette and I were friends as teenagers. She was always such a nice person and although I have not seen her all these many years, when I look at her video she looks happy with her family. It looks as though she had a life filled with love. God Bless you Jeanette and may your family find peace in the memories they shared with you.
