“ Too many memories to choose just one. Jessica was my day one! I was fortunate to have had her as my friend. There will never be another. She was one in a million and I miss her

“ I have been replaying every moment, with Jessica, in my head this last wk. Too many memories to choose just one. One memory was when we were out to eat with Yesenia and their mother. I just had surgery a wk before. Still had stitches inside and out, couldn't even stand up completely straight. Jessica did something, which I will not say. I never got up out of a booth and ran so fast in my life! I don't think I ever saw the 3 of them laugh so hard! She was my day one! No matter what we did or where we went we laughed. I was fortunate to have had her as my friend. I miss her so much. There will never be another. She was one in a million
