I regret losing contact with her and this side of the family. I remember her sausage and meatballs! Yummy.

“ About 30 years ago, I took my Aunt Joann to Liberty Bell Racetrack near Philadelphia, PA. Liberty Bell is a trotting and pacing racetrack. One of their star race horses was "Town Drunk". We had dinner in the clubhouse overlooking the track. This racetrack is closed now. Before we went on our trek to Liberty Bell my uncle Del, Aunt Joann's husband said to me "remember, she's your aunt". A very nice evening with a wonderful person at one of my favorite places.
I do not remember if we won or not, but it makes for "winning memories".
