

John Vincent D'Ambrosio

August 9, 1954 - June 28, 2026

John Vincent D'Ambrosio passed away peacefully on June 28, 2026, surrounded by the love of his wife and son.

Born on August 9, 1954, in New Haven, Connecticut, John was the beloved son of Alfred and Clare D'Ambrosio. He was raised in New Haven before moving to Brooklyn, New York, and eventually settling in Staten Island. John was a proud graduate of Xaverian High School and went on to study social work at Ohio Dominican College. He later earned his Master's Degree in Hospital Administration, building a career rooted in care and service to others.

John also honorably served his country in the United States Marine Corps. During his time in service, he was deployed to Guantanamo Bay, Cuba, and completed his duty with pride, receiving an honorable discharge in 1975.

After returning home to Staten Island, John met the love of his life in 1983. The two were married and began building a beautiful life together. They welcomed their son, Michael, in 1984, and in 1985, the family made their home in New Jersey.

John found joy in the simple and meaningful things in life. He loved building model planes, had a deep appreciation for history, and cherished the many cruises he took with his wife, creating lasting memories together. Above all,

John's greatest love was his family - he always put them first and took immense pride in the life they built together.

John was predeceased by his parents, Alfred and Clare D'Ambrosio. He is survived by his devoted wife, Karen; his beloved son, Michael, and daughter-in-law, Corryn; and his cherished granddaughter, Madison.

John will be deeply missed by all who knew and loved him. His legacy of love, service, and dedication to family will live on in the hearts of those he leaves behind.

A Funeral Mass will be at 10:30 AM on Friday at Saint Ambrose Church located at 83 Throckmorton Ln Old Bridge, New Jersey 08857.
