

John A. Giuliano

June 24, 1930 - December 9, 2015

John A. Giuliano, 85, of West Palm Beach, Florida passed away peacefully on December 9, 2015. John was born on June 24, 1930 in Brooklyn, New York. John was a retired mechanic of the New York City Sanitation Department. John also served meritoriously as a Sergeant in the United States Marine Corps in Korea. He served between 1948 and 1952. John was a proud American and an active member of the Marine Corps Detachment. He donated his time to several Marine Corps charitable organizations such as Toys for Tots and Wounded Warriors Project. He looked forward every year to attending the annual Marine Ball, held in honor of the birth date of the United States Marine Corps.

John was predeceased by his wife, Amelia Giuliano, and his son-in-law Anthony J. Curreri. John is survived by his children Johanna Curreri, Marilyn and Scott Broders, and John and Suzanne Giuliano; his loving grandchildren, Jaclyn and Christopher Taglia, Joseph Campo, Aimee Campo, Gabrielle Curreri, Anthony Curreri, Christina Giuliano and Daniel Giuliano, along with many other special family members and friends. John will be sadly missed but never forgotten.

Family and friends are invited to visit on Sunday, December 13 from 1pm – 6pm. Burial on Monday, December 14 at Holy Cross Cemetery
