“ Jack. It's been 10 years since you went home to the lord. Just about 10 minute ago, I received a call from Lori. I was told that Maryann who has missed her husband every single day since you passed, has suddenly passed in her sleep. I suppose you already know, as God has promised we'd be together again..I was just texting with Maryam on Thursday, today is only Sunday. We spoke about you of course, we laughed about the "Vette" and how funny you thought my antics were; reminding me, she thought of you every day. You and Maryann have been the only parents I've ever known. I am lost. I remember you joked about death one time saying " death can't be too bad, no one has ever come back to complain". I love you and miss you both, always. Until we meet again, Tony (Sweathog). ❤️ ☐

“ Maryann,Laura and family: We are sorry for the loss of a great man; Jack will be missed immensely. Jack was our leader at West St. he fought for everyone as chief steward. Jack had a big heart, always willing to help you. But most of all Jack was a dear friend and brother to us all. We have many fond memories of Jack: he took us to look for houses in his area; the time we went to see the Righteous Brothers in concert; his 50th birthday surprise; and the many laughs we had at work, just to mention a few. Thank you Jack for all of this and more, you were an amazing man and will be missed. Love: Maria and Joe Genova, Franklin Square,NY.

“ Jack, I've notified the Secret Service. It appears that even the folks in DC have taken note of your departure. In all seriousness, there are so few people whom have ever walked upon this earth that have truly made a difference. You have impacted so many lives for so long, I'm not sure you could ever have known to what degree, absolutely amazing. There is a huge hole now here on this earth, one which can never be filled. Although I've always aspired to be like you, to my family, friends, to people I don't even know. I've often asked . . . " WWJD." (What would Jack do)? My wife Sonia, loved you within the first 30 seconds she met you as we pranked you back in October, you were classic in your response. "(Thinny-Thin)". I will continue in my life, to honor your legacy and your memory. Maryann and Lori will never want for anything so long as I am alive. May God rest your soul. All Hail the Chief.

“ There will never be words to describe how much I love you and miss you already. Even though you're not here, the memories we've shared will be with me for all the days of my life. I am you in so many ways. I say things such as 'keep the faith...' and I do believe "for every drop of rain that falls, someone gets wet...". Jack, heaven needs you, as you told me before, "death cannot to so bad.. . . No one has ever come back to complain..." Go be with the Lord, he'll be in stitches after just 5 minutes. To the only DAD I've ever known... I love you. Miss you here forever.
