January 10, 1958 - February 26, 2024

John Lizzio, 66 of Monroe Township, New Jersey passed away on Monday, February 26, 2024, at the Jersey Shore University Medical Center in Neptune, New Jersey.

John was raised on the Lower East Side of Manhattan, in the streets of Little Italy. At the age of 15 the Lizzio family moved to the New Dorp section of Staten Island, and John would graduate from Monsignor Farrell High School. John would meet the love of his life Karen Miliante and the couple would begin a courtship. Eventually they would marry and start a family of their own. The family would eventually settle in Monroe to raise their children.

John worked as a bus operator for the Monroe Township board of education. John enjoyed spending time at local car shows, and had a few classic cars of his own. While at home John enjoyed baking and cooking for his family. He loved listening to classic music from the 50's, 60's, 70's. John truly enjoyed lending a helping hand to anyone that needed it. Above all else John loved being surrounded by his family, and will be deeply missed by all those that love him.

“ Dearest Karen & family,
There are no words to express the heartbreak we have at this time. John was such a kind person, a real gentleman. He truly loved his family. He loved keeping busy and made sure he always provided for his family. No matter what life threw his way he always had a positive attitude and would always have a smile on his face. Ray is going to miss his car show buddy. May you rest in peace John. May your journey bring you safely home. You have left a void in all our hearts. Until we meet again. We love you “Lizzio”.

“ John’s son Joe and my cousin Briana Siano have been dating for many years. I first met John last year while he was driving the shuttle bus for my other cousin’s , Cassandra Siano, wedding. Within moments of speaking with him I can tell this was a very kind man who worked hard for his family. Joe has been like a part of our family for a long while now and my heart absolutely breaks for him and his whole family. My deepest condolences on this unfathomable loss. RIP John, the Lynchs and Sianos will make sure Joe knows he is loved and cared for by us
