John McCaffrey, 58 of Old Bridge, New Jersey passed away on Sunday, February 19, 2023, at the Bayshore Community Hospital in Holmdel, New Jersey.

Born Friday, May 15, 1964 in Newark, New Jersey, John was the son of Ethel McCaffrey and the late John Sufleta.

John lived locally around the area staying with many friends before settling in the Laurence Harbor section of Old Bridge with his long time partner Cindi. Though music was always his focus, John previously worked as a maintenance man at the Parkview at Madison complex.

John was predeceased by his sister Michelle Bowers,

John is survived by his longtime companion Cindy Lawnik-Smith, by his mother Ethel McCaffrey, by his siblings, Diane McCaffrey, Jeffrey McCaffrey, Sharon Nelson, Gary Nelson, Anthony Garafalo, and Stuart Eisenberg, by his niece Megan Nesbihal and many special caring nieces and nephews, by his best friends Brett Sontag and Tony Flora, by many caring friends, and of course by his love Lisa the Bass.

“ Jay. We were together in what will remain for my life as the first band that really mattered, to me, Elysium. We lost touch after the band dissolved but whenever I saw you, which wasn't often, you were always the same guy I knew, kind, courteous and with humor that could be like a hidden ace when revealed at just the right moment. Thanks for those times at your abode in Union Beach when I needed to get away from whatever madness was going down at the time way back when. I know you fought hard and because of that -- everyone around you won. Rest in Peace. --

“ Jay and I grew up together in Keansburg, NJ. Jay lived about 10 houses down from us. Jay and I were huge KISS fans and routinely placed the makeup on and would slide the KISS Alive album on and stage the whole KISS show from the album in his room! We would switch up between Paul and Gene! Jay introduced me to playing guitar and Bass. Jay and I hung out at Bruce's house in the basement jamming with Tommy, Bruce, Richie Albe. I can name 20-30 friends who would share playing time between us. We grew up in the 70's when music was solid and not like today's music. Jay introduced me to a lot of women! Jay introduced me to marijuana, which we all loved back then in the Jersey Shore!

We dated our share of women and loved every minute of it! We grew up and went to High School together and simply enjoyed life. I graduated high school and moved to northern jersey then joined the Army. We would catch up from time to time. I introduced my wife and kids to Jay. He was one of the first of friends to hold and meet my son Matthew...over the years he would send me a message about the old days and keep me informed of his dreams of being a rockstar, which he was to me and several of our good friends. I'm gonna miss him. We shared a lot of happy memories and sad ones to. RIP my brother...save me a seat in heaven. I may not get there tomorrow but be patient, we will meet up again! I love you Jay Jay..I always have and will!
