“ My deepest sympathy is extended to all of you for the loss of your father. I have definite memories of John. The one is particular that brings a smile to my face is that years ago, while grandmom was alive, we would celebrate her birthday on New Years eve. because her birthday was Jan. i. Anyway we would gather in the basement of Mom's house and have a party. John always entertained us by picking up a broom and imitating Elvis Presley, he would sing to us. We laughed so much, but enjoyed his efforts non the less. I also enjoyed my trips to Florida whenever we went to visiit him and Carmella. Rest in perce, John and give my sister a hug an kiss for me. Also tell Harry I love him dearly With deepest sympathy and lots of love. Aunt Fran

“ Mark, Janine, Frank & loving families; Tony & I send our love, prayers and deepest sympathy. I have wonderful memories of "Unc" (as my brother Gene would call Uncle John) from the time I was a toddler. Your mom & dad treated my friends & I like their own. We were always welcome in their home in Perth Amboy but now I will especially miss our weekly stops to Ellenton on our way to see Kristen & Isabella in Tampa. We will miss our nightly calls talking about the Yankees and my frantic calls to Uncle John asking him for help with Polish phrases and numbers so I could teach my granddaughter Isabella (age 4) with her third language. Uncle John's love for the Blessed Mother reminds me of the love he had for his own mother which I truly witnessed as I grew up. Aunt Carmella would be so proud of all of you; how lovingly you cared for Uncle John and helped keep him in touch with all of us. Rest in peace Uncle John; memories of you and Aunt Carmella will always be with us. Loretta

“ I hope that you all can take comfort in the knowledge that Dad/Grandpop is where he has always wanted to be, - with "his Carm".His strong faith and devotion to the Blessed Mother has always been his sustenance.The love and care that you, his children, and grandchildren have given him, was a wonderful tribute to your Mom/Grandmother.I know that she has always been a constant in your lives and is very proud of you all for taking such good care of, and loving your Dad/Grandfather. Now, once again, they are both together. You have done them proud. With Love and pride,
