

Joseph DiMino

February 3, 1950 - April 16, 2021

Joseph DiMino, 71, of Monroe, NJ, passed away surrounded by his family on April 16, 2021.

Joe was born on February 3, 1950 to Carmela and Vincent DiMino in Manhattan, New York. After graduating from Far Rockaway High School he spent his life in the construction business as a carpenter and eventually a project manager until his retirement. He was known for his 'magic hands' and always offered to build his masterpieces for family and friends.

Joe was preceded in death by his father, Vincent DiMino. He is survived by his mother, Carmela DiMino; beloved wife, Susan; his son Daniel, and wife Jessica; grandchildren, Isabella and Daniel Jr.; sisters Annette Levy, husband George; Diane Leonard, husband James; Marie Smith, husband Doug; and many loving nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

Joe was well known for his charismatic, humorous personality, loyalty and love for his family. He was an avid NY Yankees, Giants and Knick fan. His greatest joy in life was being a father and grandfather. You could always find him on the sidelines of their sporting events. Whether it was soccer, basketball, baseball, Saturday morning swim practice for the grandchildren, always asking if the water was wet, or supporting Old Bridge High School sports simply because his son was a coach. His positive cheers and smile guided countless athletes to victory.

A Funeral Mass will be at 10:00 AM on Wednesday at Most Holy Redeemer Church located at 133 Amboy Road Matawan, New Jersey 07747.

The family will receive friends from 4:00 PM to 8:00 PM on Tuesday, April 20, 2021, at Michael Hegarty & John Vincent Scalia Home For Funerals and Cremation Service, 3377 US Highway 9, Old Bridge, New Jersey.

To the DiMino family. I'm sorry to hear about Joe. I grew up with him in Far Rockaway . He was a great guy, we played football together. Even though we haven't seen each other in a long time. I have always considered him my friend. I would like to offer my condolences. RIP Joe. Dennis Adamsky
