

Joseph Esposito

April 20, 1943 - November 29, 2023

Joseph Esposito, 80 of Parlin, New Jersey passed away, surrounded by his loving family on Wednesday, November 29, 2023 in Old Bridge, New Jersey.

Born, April 20, 1943 in Brooklyn, New York, Joseph was the son of the late Mario and Connie Esposito.

Joseph was raised in Sheepshead Bay Brooklyn. Joseph would started a long career working on Wall Street and served his country in the United States Army.

While working at the American Stock Exchange, Joseph met his wife Joan Maniscola. Joseph and Joan started a family of their own and raised their two daughters in Brooklyn. Joseph continued to work for the American Stock Exchange for over 40 years, and retired as the Trading Floor Manager.

After their children were grown, Joseph and Joan would move to Staten Island for a short time, before settling in Parlin, New Jersey for the past 20 years ago.

Joseph was a member of the American Red Cross. He volunteered his time to the community both during Hurricane Katrina and also during the tragic events of 9/11. Joseph was handy, working around the house and also helped out many friends and family. He enjoyed listening to good music, and his old cars. Joseph loved being with his family the most and was a very proud father and grandfather. He was a loving and caring man who will be deeply missed by all those that knew him.

Joseph was predeceased by his parents Martin and Connie, and by his younger brother Marty.

Joseph is survived by his wife of 53 years, Joan, by his loving daughters, Connie Elkins and her husband Thomas, and Jennifer Sutherland and her husband John, by his brother Nick, by his cherished grandchildren, Lauren Elkins, and Cassandra and Connor Sutherland, and by many loving nieces and nephews and family and friends.

Funeral Services were private.

Online condolences may be made to the family at www.HegartyScaliaFuneralHome.com