“ Dear Daddy, it's been one month today that you've gone home to be with our lord. I feel your presence with me every day...without that I wouldn't be able to get out of bed every morning. Thank you for my dream last night. My heart was singing hearing your voice once again. I'm trying my hardest to keep my promises to you. Please forgive me if I have a bad day. You see I loved you more than life itself and some days I'm not as strong as you would like me to be. I will continue to make you proud even though you are no longer here with us on earth. When you told me that day that I was your hero, I froze....for the definition of a hero is, A man distinguished by exceptional courage and nobility and strength. In other words, the meaning of the word "Hero" is Joseph Ross LaTorraca. I'm so blessed to have been able to call you my Hero every minute of every day of my life. May you be resting peacefully in our lords embrace. Always and forever, your Renee xxxooo

“ Dearest Uncle JoeLa,I cant believe another one of my favorite uncles has been called home by our Lord. My heart is truly broken. Im so grateful for all the wonderful memories i have of you. I spent every summer at your house, vacationed with you, so much so that you always said you were claiming me on your tax return. You taught us all so much about family, loyalty, compassion and ou always made us go to church on Sunday with you. We drove you crazy and you loved it. Ill miss our phone conversatons and hearing you laugh, ill miss your smiling face and how you always blessed me before i left. This family now has another void in it and we will forever be saddened by you leaving us. You were loved by everyone and now you will be missed by everyone, especially us your family. Rest in peace now, for you suffered too long. Fly with the angels til we all meet again in heaven. I love you and will forever miss you. Your niece Marisa xoxo
