“ I met Mr. Joseph Scafidi only recently upon moving to the Birchwood Senior Residence in Old Bridge, however, I realized how wonderful and family oriented a man he was in conversing with him from the very onset. I was really saddened to hear the tragedy that had occurred to him and his extended family in his passing. I wish I had gotten to know Joseph as a good neighbor and friend. The memory I have of him will resonate within me. My sincere condolences-- Wayne Harrison

“ My cousin Joe was a kind-hearted gentleman. He was cousins with my Dad but I referred to him as Uncle Joe. He loved his family and was dedicated to them as far as I can remember. I hold fond memories of him making me laugh when he shared stories from the old days. I had hoped to visit with him while I was in NJ this week but God had a different plan. My family and I are so very sorry to see this day as it is a great loss to us all. We will always love our Uncle Joe and I pray for his eternal peace as he is reunited with our loved ones that went on before him. May the ever loving grace and peace of our LORD and Savior Jesus Christ blanket his family in comfort knowing he is wrapped in the arms of God. We love you Uncle Joe and will always hold you dear to our hearts. We will miss you until we ourselves are reunited in glory. Rest in Peace with love from your family.
