

Joseph Sisolack

May 9, 1961 - January 14, 2023

Joseph Sisolack, 61, of Spotswood, New Jersey passed away on Saturday January 14, 2023 at home, surrounded by his loving family.

Born Tuesday, May 9, 1961 in South Amboy, New Jersey Joseph was the only son of the late Joseph and Joyce Sisolack.

Joseph grew up in Old Bridge, New Jersey and graduated from Madison Central High School. He worked as a heavy equipment operator for Cheesequake Farms for many years. Joseph would meet the love of his life, Deborah, and the two would move to Spotswood, New Jersey to raise their four children together.

Joseph knew how to have a good time and was always the life of the party. He was a family man at heart and enjoyed vacationing with his wife and children. Joseph was also very handy. He could often be found fixing things around the home or helping out his family and friends with home projects. An ever present figure of strength and resiliency, Joseph will be deeply missed by who knew him.

Joseph was predeceased by his parents, Joseph and Joyce and by his sister Joyce.

Joseph is survived by his beloved wife of 32 years, Debbie, his loving children Corey, Tabitha and her husband Robert Miller, Keirstyn and her husband John Colgan, and Tyler, his cherished grandchildren Hailey and Bobby Miller, his siblings Jeannie and her husband Dave, Joann and her husband Jack, and Jamie and her husband Ivan, and by his many nieces and nephews.

The family will receive friends from 3:00 PM to 8:00 PM on Friday, January 20, 2023, at Michael Hegarty & John Vincent Scalia Home For Funerals and Cremation Service, 3377 US Highway 9, Old Bridge, New Jersey.

“ I have So many memories i can Share of you. How you taught me how to spackle and put up Sheetrock. How to vacuum the pool and do all the chemicals. How to check the oil and tire pressure on my car. There’s so many more things you taught me. So many conversations, laughs, jokes, and memories that I will cherish for the rest of my life. I miss You so much already daddy. It hurts but I’ll take that pain knowing that you are not in yours anymore. I will hold you in my heart until I can hold you in heaven. I love You daddy watch over us.

“ *Dear joe
We will always remember the good times we
Had over the years. Being your neighbor for 28
Years. Partying on your deck, you made us laugh with your sense of humor. You and Al
Helping each other with projects and the sheds
You and him built. Oh how time flies! Love you Always, Terrie & Al.*

“ My heart is crushed but to know Joe is to know a pillar of strength.

I loved Joe like a big brother. Who always treated me like one of his siblings.

He is in the loving arms of his parents and his sister.

I pray for the comforting thoughts to his amazing family.

Rest in Peace Joe.

Until we meet again my friend.

“ Joe and his family had Hearts of Gold. Always giving and asking for nothing in return.. My most wonderful memory of Joe was him and his family came to our Judgeship wedding to my husband Al (R.I.P.) And came to our little dinner reception and left few minutes early and gave us an after party at their home.. That's who the Sisolack's are

They give with their hearts...

I have missed them for a few years but I've pretty much kept up with their daughter KK..

Debbie and family please accept my love and prayers for Joe's soul..

If you need anything don't hesitate to call I'm close by.

Love to all, Joyce Liebman
