Juan Gonzalez, Jr., 19 of Matawan, New Jersey passed away on Saturday, September 11, 2021

After graduating High School Juan started working full time in his family's landscaping business, Dream Landscaping. Juan was his father's life companion since a very early age, around 7 years old he always went to work snow storms with him.

Juan loved nature, and it showed in his work in landscaping. He liked sports cars, and taking care of his truck. He also enjoyed taking care of his roosters. He loved his true authentic Mexican food with his green hot sauce, lately his tacos de tripa, chilaquiles i empanizada.

Juan was the first grandson born into his family. He was very proud of his heritage and culture, and of his family roots in Michoacan, Mexico. Juan was always giving to those who needed help. He never liked to see someone upset and would be just what people needed to put smiles on their faces, his own smile could light up a room. He had a loving and caring nature, and was always the peacemaker when times were tough. What Juan loved most was his family, and being surrounded by them. He will forever be remembered for his kind, loving, and generous qualities.

“ I am devastated to hear about the loss of such a special and kind young man. I had the privilege of teaching Juan for 3 consecutive years of Accounting at Old Bridge High School. I will forever remember Juan's smile, his positive attitude, his gentle nature, and how respectful and polite he was. To the Gonzalez Family: You raised an amazing and proud man, and your love for him was very apparent by how dedicated he always was to his friends and family. My deepest prayers and sympathy to you during this difficult time.

“ My prayers go out to Juan's family in these hard times. He was a friend I will forever remember. He never failed to put a smile on my face in class. He was the funniest, most kindest kid you would know. This tragedy hit home for me. It is always the good ones. May you Rest In Peace Juan:(Until we meet again my friend
