I met Judy many years ago when she adopted Stanley from my organization. She and Louis drove into Manhattan to meet him and ended up driving home with him. She and Louis adored him through all his “stuff”. They were wonderful parents until that time came. Then, Judy wanted a cat and thus Sunny went to live with them. Through the years, Judy never wavered in her devotion to the animals or her love for Brad. She talked about him often and it was so obvious how she felt. She was a wonderful woman and I will miss her. I hope Brad and Louis find their strength in the love she had for them. She left too soon.

“ I had the pleasure of meeting Mrs. Mogol several times because of my treasured friendship with her pride and joy, Brad.

She was a wonderful woman who exuded a warmth and compassion that she passed on to Brad. My heart goes out to her loving husband, to Brad and Marcy, and to her adorable, personable grandchildren, Ben and Emma, who will be her living legacies. All her loved ones, two- and four-legged, will be in our thoughts.

I have always felt proud to know Brad, and I know Mrs. Mogol was so very proud of her son. She imbued him with a positive attitude that I never quite understood but always admired, and I know he will call upon that spirit as he mourns this tremendous loss.

We are sending all our love to Brad, his dad, and the rest of their family. May her memory be a blessing.
