“ I met Judy while working at Lowe’s one summer. She was just the sweetest and I’m happy to have known her when I did. May she be in peace now.

“ Even though Judy is no longer married to my mother's son she always called me her sister in law because she would say she only "got divorced from Robert not the family" and I will always be Jeanette's aunt. I will miss her terribly but knowing she is out of pain and has joined Anita and Red gives me some comfort, I loved her so much. xoxo RIP Judy

Judy was a beautiful person and so funny . We had some great times growing up I have some fond memories .She saved my life we were at a lake with a water fall walking in the lake there was a drop I held on to Judy for dear life. We always talked about that .Rest in peace my friend .Love you Gloria .
