

Julius Contrì

November 21, 1918 - November 30, 2011

Julius A. Contrì, 93, of Old Bridge, passed away peacefully Wednesday, November 30, 2011 at Care One @ King James Center, Atlantic Highlands, surrounded by family. He was employed in the body and fender division at Ford Motor Company, Mahwah, for 21 years retiring in 1977. Julius was an avid NY Yankee fan and was a congregant of the Church of the Good Shepherd in Old Bridge. Born in Hoboken, he resided in Old Bridge for over 25 years. Julius is predeceased by his wife of 52 years, the late Anna Contrì in 2001 and his sister Nancy Maxwell in 2010. He is survived by his children, Joseph & Michelle Contrì, of Manalapan, Thomas Contrì of Old Bridge, and his grandchildren, Joseph & his wife, Michelle Contrì, Michael & his wife Stephanie Contrì, Scott & his wife Deana Contrì, Thomas & his fiancé Dina El-Salhy, and Lorraine & her husband Brian Balson. He is also survived by his brother, Ernest Contrì, of Staten Island, NY, 3 great grandchildren, and several nieces & nephews. Friends may call on Friday, December 2, 2011 from 2-4 & 7-9pm at the Michael Hegarty Funeral Home, 3377 Rt. 9, Old Bridge, NJ. Funeral Services will be Saturday, December 3 at 10am from the Lutheran Church of the Good Shepherd, Rt 516, Old Bridge. Committal will follow at Chestnut Hill Cemetery, East Brunswick.

Tribute Wall

“ Julius Contr”

October 05, 2023 at 11:16 AM