“ My deepest condolences go out to June's family. My mom, Sally Conti had been friends with June since my mom was 8 year's old and June was 6 year's old. While driving into work today, I was chatting with my parents and my mom said she was worried about June. She had been trying to get in touch with June for a bit. My mom didn't know what to do and asked for my help. I spent most of the drive into work listening to my mom tell stories about June. June was even a bridesmaid in 1956 for my mom. June was a wonderful, kind & caring person. My mom loved her very much! It was with a very heavy heart that called my mom to notify her of June's passing. My June rest in peace and be reunited with her husband and son.
