

Kadry Elghemari

July 21, 1955 - December 5, 2023

Kadry Elghemari, 68 of Manalapan, New Jersey passed away on Tuesday, December 5, 2023, at Centra State Medical Center in Freehold, New Jersey.

Born Thursday, July 21, 1955 in El Bagour, Egypt, Kadry was the son of the late Muhammad and Latifa Elghemari.

Kadry (Andy) was raised in Egypt. He was a graduate of Alexandria University. Andy immigrated to the United States in 1976, living first in Brooklyn. He would meet the love of his life Carol Hynes and the couple would marry in 1985. They would live in Queens, before settling in Old Bridge in 1987.

It was in Old Bridge that they would start a family and raise their sons. Throughout his life Andy was in the restaurant business. He owned multiple restaurants, including Pizza Pride in New York City, and King George Diner in Fords. Andy spent time working at La Mirage Diner in Freehold. Andy also spent time in sales, he would set up shops at local markets to sell goods.

Andy enjoyed watching soccer in his free time, he was a very outgoing man, who could start a conversation with anyone he met. He was a man of great faith in his Muslim religion. Family was most important to Andy, he loved being around family. He will be admired for how kind and smart he was, and he inspired his sons to be the same.

Andy was predeceased by his siblings and by his parents.

Andy is survived by his beloved wife of 38 years, Carol, by his loving sons, Ali and Omar, and by his caring sisters and brothers in law and many loving nieces and nephews.

A Funeral service will be at 12:00 PM on Wednesday at Islamic Society of Monmouth County located at 496 Red Hill Road Middletown, New Jersey 07748. Interment will be in Marlboro Memorial Cemetery, Morganville, NJ.
