“ Dear Jean and Family -- Please accept my condolences on your loss. It saddened me greatly to hear of the passing of your mom. I will always remember your mom's kindness and patience when we would invade your house after school, on the weekends or for sleepovers. I hold a special memory of your mom welcoming me in after school one day when my father was ill and my mom had to go care for him at the hospital. As we walked home from school, your mom opened the door and said to come on in, you are going to spend a little time here this afternoon. I was confused and scared, but your mom made me safe and welcome. She showed me (and my mom) a great kindness that day and I am forever grateful. Please know I am sending you all my thoughts and prayers at this difficult time.

With deep sympathy, Laura (Rickvalsky) Fernandez

“ To us at Most Holy Redeemer she was known as Kathy. Kathy with warm eyes and a magnetic smile as you can see in her pictures.

Kathy seemed a lady of few words unless she was sharing her stories of love for her children, grandchildren and her adventures while traveling. This is when her eyes sparkled even more bright than normal.

Until the past few years, you would see Kathy sitting in the back row, while at Church, exchanging books with friends or just simply waiting for Frank to join her who was busy ushering or taking care of something around the walls of MHR. I'll be sure to sit in the back once in awhile just to say hello.

"Kathryn, Katy, Kathy", you will be missed.

To...Frank, Paul, Annette & George, Frank, Jean, Ryan, David, Lauren and to the soon to be members of the family Yvonne & Patrick our prayers, love and condolences.
