“ In the three years I worked with Kevin at Pathmark I didn't meet one person who could say anything bad about him. Kevin was welcoming to everyone and radiated positivity in strangers and friends lives alike. Quick with a joke and quicker with a smile, Kevin helped everyone he contacted. I'll never forget you Big Kev and I'll do my best to live how you did; with no strangers, just friends. My condolences to his family and God bless. We love you Kevin.

“ It was truly an honor to have known such a kind, gentle and caring person as Kevin was. He was a dear dear friend to my daughter Rachel. The fondest memory I have of Kevin was of him stopping by my house at any given time, spur of the moment and giving me the biggest and best hugs I can ever remember! Kevin will be truly missed by all! He was cherished by anyone he came in contact with. My sincerest condolences go out to his entire family. You all did an amazing job raising him! RIP DEAR KEVIN xoxo

“ My deepest condolences to the Labayen family. I still can't believe you're gone Kevin. Although we've only hung out a handful of times, you've always managed to make it feel like we were old friends. I wish I got to stop by the restaurant and try some of that food we last talked about. You will be missed brother.

“ So I keep checking this to see if anyone wrote anything so that I wouldn't be the first one... It's about the third time I checked and I KNOW that you are saying "Seriously Neen?!" So I just decided to be first, be proud of me! I don't even know what else to say Kev.. You showed me that no matter how weird I am or how clumsy I am or how gross I am sometimes, that someone will always love me. You honestly taught me to break out of this shell that I spent so many years in and showed me how to be myself.. Which is something I was scared to be for a long time around many people. You will always have such a special place in my heart forever and I love you very much. Love always, Your one and only "Neeeeeen"

“ My heart feels heavy, and I was merely an acquaintance. To Kevin's family- I am very sorry for the wonderful, bright, enthusiastic young man who has departed from your life. My name is Doreen and I was Kevin's coworker many years ago, when he worked at Pathmark. I remember his very first day of work as a teenager and watched him grow into a college student. He wore his heart on his sleeve and did befriend everyone; we all had such love for him. He always had a smile on his face and I am so sorry that you and no one else will benefit from the life he brought to every room he entered. I am very sorry the world has lost such a gem. Kevin is still very precious, but now I will appreciate him with more of memories. Kevin was a very special and wonderful young man. He was so kind and courteous. One day I hope to understand why his day was called so soon. With love, Doreen Fogel

“ Kevin, I can't believe you're gone. You were like a brother to me, my dear cousin. I look back on our lives and can only recall happiness. You were too good a person for this world and now you're with God. You always made me laugh with your dancing and quick wit. You were so confident all the time and just happy. You were endlessly positive and I hope that I could be half as good as you. I will miss you forever. We always complained that we lived too far from each other and now I'll hold you close in my heart. I love you.
