“ I will remember our camp outs. Usually it was Kevin, me, Peter and Dan. We had great times and great conversation. Kevin definitely loved his WW II models and we played war games lots of times. I regret we didn't keep up with each other after he left for the Navy. Rest In Peace my friend.

“ Kevin and I were neighbors in Old Bridge when we were children. Kevin and all the Mahoney's were like family. When we moved to New Jersey, Kevin was the first person (he was 5) who came over to our home to "welcome us to the neighborhood!" Kevin's loyal, sweet and kind personality was obvious to all who knew and loved him. Although those days of our childhood have long passed, Kevin's indelible character will stay with me always. I pray for his family and hope he has found peace.
