“ My family and I are deeply saddened to discover Lorraine's passing. She sold us our house, my sister her house, and one of my employees their house. She was Brooklyn tough, but had a huge heart with a tremendous amount of integrity. She will be missed by all of us.

“ I remember the day when my Aunt Hilda and Uncle Sammy brought Lorraine home from the hospital. I was there to welcome her home. I was the oldest in the family and was designated the official baby sitter for Lorraine and her sister Sharon.

We send our love and deepest regrets of loss to the Fabiano, Cohen, Solomon and Aronson families. We all will miss her and she will always be in our thoughts.

It was written many thousands of years ago in an ancient language; 'OM THAT SAT'; There is only one and 'EKAM SAT', We must have 'Love and Compassion' in our hearts. Truly, this is what our beloved cousin has. This will never leave our family.

Lorraine personified that there is one God and certainly displayed Love and Compassion for family and friends.

To her sister, Sharon Cohen and Cousin Alvin Solomon and their respected families, Lorraine will be missed, remembered and loved.

God Bless,

Cousin Alvin
