

Leigh Weisfeld

April 16, 1941 - January 3, 2022

Leigh Weisfeld, 80 of Old Bridge, New Jersey passed away on Monday, January 3, 2022, at his home, surrounded by the love of his family.

Born Wednesday, April 16, 1941 in Bronx, New York, he was the son of the late Emmanuel and Molly Weisfeld.

Leigh was raised in the Bronx, and would serve his country honorably in the United States Army. He would meet and marry the love of his life, Rochelle Martin and the couple resided in Queens, before settling in Old Bridge to raise their family.

Leigh worked as a salesman for many years. He enjoyed his job tremendously, selling different souvenirs and novelties throughout New York City. He was an avid NY Yankee fan, and enjoyed going fishing during his free time. What he loved the most was his family and spending time with them, especially his grandson.

Leigh is survived by his beloved wife, Rochelle, by his loving sons, Eric and his wife Jodi, and Craig and his wife Sheryl, and by his cherished grandson, Benjamin.

A Funeral service will be at 12:00 PM on Thursday at Michael Hegarty & John

Vincent Scalia Home For Funerals and Cremation Service located at 3377 US Highway 9 Old Bridge, New Jersey 08857.

For those who can not attend in person, a live stream of the prayer service will be available on this obituary, starting at 11:55 AM on Thursday.

“ So sorry for you all. Leigh was the nicest kindest man who also had a great sense of humor. I always remember when the four of us were at a Chinese restaurant and the waiter bowed to him and Leigh got up and bowed back. That's a memory that always makes me smile and how I will remember him. To Shelley, Eric And Craig and Jodi and Sheryl and Ben my deepest sympathy and love to you all. from Laurie
