“ My name is Lupita. I was a 20 year old hostess at a Mexican restaurant in Las Vegas when I met “Lee” in August or September 1984. He came in for lunch on a Friday afternoon. There was an automatic attraction and undeniable chemistry. He presented himself as a single man and asked me to go on a date that evening. My car was in the shop and he left me a $100 bill so I could get a taxi from my house and join him where he was staying - MGM Grand Hotel & Casino. It was a whirlwind romance for the next 4 days - fine dining, dancing, taking him to some of Las Vegas’ tourist sites. He would come by cab every day for lunch and would bring me and my co-workers bags and bags of various cosmetics and finger nail samples from a convention he stated he was attending. On our last day he took me to a jewelry store inside the airport and bought me a beautiful watch. He had my telephone number but I never heard from him again. I did get a few calls from a “relative” named Lilly informing me Lee was very happy, couldn’t stop talking about the special lady he has met and she was hoping we would have opportunity to meet in near future. I never heard from him again but to this day I think of him fondly and treasure the time we had together. He was a gentleman, well-mannered, respectful, generous, in addition to a great dancer. He treated me like a lady. I was saddened to learn of his passing - my condolences to his family. As long as we remember him he will live in our hearts.
