

Lois Wilson

January 17, 1928 - October 23, 2022

Lois A. Wilson, 94 of South Amboy, New Jersey passed away on Sunday, October 23, 2022, at Bayshore Medical Center in Holmdel, New Jersey.

Born Saturday, January 17, 1928, in West Orange, NJ, Lois was the daughter of the late Rudolph and Elizabeth Brockelman.

Born and raised in New Jersey, Lois was a graduate of Bloomfield High School. She met the love of her life, Edward, on a blind date set up by friends. They would go on to spend 51 wonderful years together. The couple moved to Old Bridge in 1959 to raise their six children. Lois also worked many years for the Old Bridge Public Library as a Circulation Clerk.

Lois was very artistic, making Dammit Dolls and many other crafts in her spare time. She understood the importance of family and would spend as much time as possible with them. She was so proud of all her children, grandchildren, and great grandchildren, showing off their accomplishments whenever given the chance. Lois touched the hearts of many and will be deeply missed by all who love her.

Lois was predeceased by her devoted husband Edward, her beloved son Thomas, her cherished granddaughter Cathleen and her brother John.

Lois is survived by her loving children, James and his wife Cathy, daughter in law Linda, John and his wife Carol, Elizabeth, Robert and companion Kathleen, Paul and his wife Tara, and by all thirteen of her wonderful grandchildren, and by her fifteen cherished great grandchildren. She also was expecting a new great grandchild.

The family will receive friends on Tuesday November 1, 2022 between the hours of 9:30 am and 10:30 am at the Cross of Glory Lutheran Church, located at 95 Cambridge Dr. Aberdeen, NJ. A funeral service will follow, and will be followed by the interment service at 1:00 pm at Brig. General Wm. C. Doyle Veterans Cemetery, Arneytown, NJ.
