“ I met Lori a few years ago before the gym opened here in East Windsor, she was a sweet woman filled with dreams and expectations. The last time I talked to her was a few weeks ago before she went on her last vacation and didn't know of her passing until this morning. I am speechless and it is very hard for me to comprehend that she is gone. RIP Lori, I will not say good-bye but instead I will say "until I see you again my friend".

“ I worked for Lori and her dad Lori was a shining light whenever I would see her. She always made time to chat with me when I would visit the club to workout. We became friends and the closeness grew very quickly. I admired her warmth and kindness. I had mentioned more than once that I never worked for anyone like her and her dad Mr. Bob. We truly felt as a family and I will always miss her.
