“ I took a few days to do this, met Lori in 1988 at work what a ball of Joy. Met her wonderful husband Julio thereafter and became instant friends and part of my family.

I can't say enough about her, the smile, her kindness, that laughter n her larger than life personality wow! The parties, the vacations we shared she was one of my bestest friends along with Julio who I adore. He and her daughters were her life.

Too many memories but everyone loved you. The world will miss you but heaven got a pretty cool angel 😇 our loss their gain.

The Godmother of my daughter will always remember you, in my heart. Will watch over Julio my brother n your girls. Our love always.

See you in the next life playing chins LoL.

“ Lori was an absolute ray of sunshine that brightened everyone's day just by being present. Honest, caring, devoted, kind and incredibly funny. I looked at a plaque in my home that reads
LIVE

The purpose of life is to be useful, to be responsible, to be compassionate. It is, above all, to matter, to count, to stand for something, to have made some difference.

Lori embodied all this and more. She has made an incredible difference. I am proud to have called her my friend an I will always treasure her and the memories our families shared over the years. My love and prayers are with you Julio, Jessica and Nicky.

“ Thinking of Lori and her loving family today.
May she rest in eternal peace.

You can shed tears that she is gone or you can smile because she has lived.
You can close your eyes and pray that she will come back or you can open your eyes and see all that she has left.
Your heart can be empty because you can't see her or you can be full of the love that you shared.
You can turn your back on tomorrow and live yesterday or you can be happy for tomorrow because of yesterday.

May peace and comfort be with you in the coming days. We send our love and light!

“ I’ve known Lori her whole life. We were neighbors and then became cousins. Lori always made sure to keep in touch and I so enjoyed when we talked. She is a beautiful person with so much heart and a vibrant way of living life to the full. She treasured her life with Julio and her precious daughters. We are so sorry for your loss and our loss too but thankful for the promises of God. May He give you comfort and peace. ✨ Lori will always be remembered by us as a strong, loving, caring, and joyful part of our family. ❤️

“ I too met Lori when our daughters were young at a play group. She immediately introduced herself and we have been close friends since then.

Her friendship and kindness were so special to me. She was always there for a friend in need. We became fast friends and would meet up weekly to chat about our lives. She was an example of living life to the fullest is. Her love for her family, friends, and everyone she held dear was her gift. No one can fill the void I feel for my special friend. Until we meet again my friend, hold a place beside you for me. Love Always, Marie Howard

“ I met Lori back when our girls were small and in ballet together and immediately loved her bubbly and friendly personality. She had no airs or pretenses and didn't need to know you to talk to you. She was genuine. Her strong Jersey accent and smile were her trademarks. She never hesitated to share her life, invite you over, or ask about your life. She was interested in you, present. She truly lived and loved life. Her husband and daughters were everything to her. I remember fondly hearing the story of how she met Julio and how they were later blessed with Jessica and then Nicole. I would always see her supporting the girls interests and activities. My sincerest sympathies to her family. I hope the many wonderful memories of their special mother, spouse, and sister will comfort them in the days ahead. Lori was a gift to the world...
