

Lorraine Engh

November 12, 1926 - September 18, 2014

Lorraine (O'Connor) Engh, 87, of Cheesequake Village, Old Bridge died Thursday, September 18, 2014. Born in Jersey City she lived in Central Park before moving to Cheesequake Village 24 years ago. Lorraine is predeceased by her cherished husband Olaf and is survived by her loving son William and his wife Marlene Engh, their cherished children William E. Engh, David Pruscino and Noelle Cordoso and adored great-grandson Joel Cordoso. She is also survived by her loving step-son Stephen Engh and companion Mimi Davisson. Lorraine worked with Blonder Tongue in Old Bridge for several years and most recently worked with the Township of Old Bridge as a bus aide for over 10 years retiring in 1999. She was a loving, giving person who donated to many charities throughout her lifetime. She was loved animals and adored Italian music. In lieu of flowers and in honor of Lorraine's love of charities donations may be made in her memory to a charity of your choice. Private cremation services were under the direction of Michael Hegarty Funeral Home. To send an online condolence, please visit www.hegartyfuneralhome.com
