

Lorraine Princiotta

February 19, 1947 - May 25, 2025

Lorraine Princiotta, 78, of Manalapan, New Jersey, passed away peacefully on May 25, 2025, surrounded by her loving family.

Born in Brooklyn, New York, Lorraine was the daughter of Andrew and Theresa Conzo and one of three loving siblings. After attending high school, Lorraine met the love of her life, Richard. Together, they moved to Staten Island and built a beautiful life, raising their family with warmth and devotion before eventually retiring to New Jersey.

Lorraine was a natural caretaker, selflessly devoting many years to caring for both her mother and her beloved husband. Her compassion extended beyond her family and into the community through her dedicated support of the Susan B. Komen Pink Ribbon Breast Cancer Foundation. A passionate advocate, Lorraine worked tirelessly to raise awareness for breast cancer causes.

She found joy in traveling, enjoying meals out with family and friends and crafting, but her greatest happiness came from spending time with her family. Lorraine never missed a chance to be there for her loved ones, whether it was cheering from the sidelines at a grandchild's sporting event or preparing a home-cooked meal for a holiday or special occasion. Her presence was a steady and loving force in the lives of all who knew her.

Lorraine was predeceased by her parents, Andrew and Theresa Conzo; her beloved husband of almost 40 years, Richard Princiotta; and her brother, Ronnie.

She is survived by her devoted children, Jeanine and her husband Stephen Bollini, and Richard and his wife Deana Princiotta; and by her cherished grandchildren, Brianna, Richard, Julia, Daniella, and Jenna.

Lorraine's legacy is one of unconditional love, unwavering strength, and deep commitment to family and community. She will be remembered always and missed dearly.

In lieu of flowers, the family kindly asks that donations be made in Lorraine's memory to the Susan G. Komen Breast Cancer Foundation: <https://www.komen.org>.
