

Louis Magnotti

October 6, 1940 - July 31, 2018

Louis Magnotti, 77, of Old Bridge, New Jersey, passed away peacefully on Tuesday, July 31, 2018. Born and raised in Rosebank, Staten Island on October 6, 1940 to Anna and Alphonse Magnotti.

As a young man he worked along side family at Magnotti's Bakery and Magnotti's Restaurant. Later after over five years servicing as one of New York's finest, Louis found his calling as a FDNY firefighter for over 25 years first in Manhattan and then in Stapleton, Staten Island for Engine 153/Ladder 77.

Louis was a true all around sportman, with a true passion for golf. He was a remarkable artist and had a passion for cooking especially Italian cuisine and pizza.

He immensely enjoyed spending time and entertaining his loving wife and family. He once wrote: "My children and my grandchildren make me feel so proud. It has become a beautiful family and if it's possible - I love them even more than they love me."

Louis is survived by his wife, Ann Magnotti and his devoted brother, Alan Magnotti. He was extremely loving and proud of his children Lori, Michael (Christine), and Kristina Civile (James) and his two grandchildren Daniella

Civile and Angelina Magnotti. He was a beloved stepfather to Kelly Anne Hadden, Kathy Commune, Billy Nipper, and Michelle Nipper.

“ Louie, will always be grateful for your help over the years. You were a good neighbor. I'll always remember the eggplant parmigian you sent over to us and the fabulous pizza my Mom and I were invited over to share.

However, you promised another, so you still owe me. Rest in peace my friend, will miss chatting up with you in the yard. You are now in loving care and free of pain.
