“ So sorry to know just now the sad news. She has been the most supportive, lovely, nice person I met during my staying in USA. I will never forget the time I spent with her, together with my wife and my daughter Bianca. In summer 2013 I tried to arrange a meeting with together with my mother, Adele Buono (her cousin) but it didn't work out: it would have been beautiful to see them together after so many years. The deepest condolences from all Mele's family.

“ I am deeply saddened by the loss of your mom Lucy. She will be truly missed by all who knew her. Lucy was such a lovely, kind and warm woman. I cherish the memories that I have of Lucy in my childhood when I would see her during family visits. She always took the time to talk to me with such warmth and always had a way of giving me advice in a subtle way. I will remember her always.
Our deepest sympathy

“ To the Calabrese family, our deepest condolences. We lost a great one. I write this post representing my mother Felina and my Aunt Josephine, both cousins of Lucy. They are older now and unable to make the trip from Niagara to New Jersey. When I think of Lucy, I think of Family. She did an incredible job of staying connected to everyone. An example for us all. I lost track of the number of times she hosted people from out of town or out of country. Even total strangers. If they were important to you, they were important to her. Getting a multi course meal when you visited was part of the wonderful experience. What a great cook. Take comfort in the fact she will be watching over all of us.
