“ RIP Luigi. Growing up in Brooklyn Luigi and I, and the kids from the block would play all day and night. Luigi and I would flip baseball cards on his front porch. Luigi had a miniature bowling pin good luck charm named Pierre Delabioski, when flipping and the stacks were big Luigi would exclaim, Pierre don't let me down. Those were the good old days, long gone, but not forgotten. Condolences to Natalie, Vincent and the Barletta family. ❤️
