I grew up next door to the DeRose family and there was never a kinder and warmer person than Mrs DeRose. Also she made amazing homemade cannoli around the holidays. Incredible. Wonderful family ! - Dave

“ Mrs. DeRose was always so kind and loving when I was younger living in Old Birdge. I met her son Gilbert through my older brother Mark, as he is one of Gilbert's dearest friends. Through their friendship was how our families knew one another and through those years, "many times" I was fortunate to have been inside their home to see for myself the person she truly was. She was always cooking for an army with a "huge" smile on her face wanting you to sit, eat and chat, Lol. You just felt and knew she was the heart of their family.

Their hearts will continue to beat with all the memories of her that can never be forgotten. Her presence all of these years was certainly a treasure and such a Blessing. Living 98 years is remarkable and I know their family is so grateful to have been able to love and adore her for such a long time.

Sending my love to the entire family.
