

Mannar Rubino

December 5, 1926 - November 4, 2021

Mannar Rubino, 94 of Old Bridge, New Jersey passed away on Thursday, November 4, 2021, at Robert Wood Johnson University, in New Brunswick, New Jersey.

Born, December 5, 1926 to the late Albert and Antoinette Bartoloma she was the youngest of five children. Mannar was born and raised in Brooklyn, New York. She was a graduate of New Utrecht High School and would go on to work for Sayrewoods Jewelers, a newspaper company, and spend the rest of her career doing book keeping.

She would meet her late husband Joseph in church, a place they both loved. After getting married in 1957, they would have their first and only child, Anthony. They would soon move to Old Bridge, New Jersey to settle down and raise their son. Mannar enjoyed playing tennis and cards with a group of friends. And when they each had won enough, they would all take a trip together. Mannar loved to travel, she loved seeing the world and new places. She was avid church attendee, as her late husband was one of the first Ministers at St. Ambrose Church in Old Bridge. Mannar loved her family most of all and enjoyed all the time she spent with them. She was a loving woman, who will be missed by all those who knew her.

Mannar is predeceased by her parents Albert and Antoinette, by her husband of 65 years, Joseph and her loving siblings Agnes, Thomas, Albert and Sonny.

Mannar is survived by her loving son, Anthony Rubino and wife Eileen. Her cherished grandson Jared. And by her nieces, Kathleen Jaworski, Antoinette Vasile Sennick. And by many other nieces and newphews.

The family will receive friends from 8:30 AM to 10:15 AM on Monday, November 8, 2021, at Michael Hegarty & John Vincent Scalia Home For Funerals and Cremation Service, 3377 US Highway 9, Old Bridge, New Jersey.

A funeral mass will take place on Monday at 10:30 AM at St. Ambrose Church. Entombment at Holy Cross Cemetery in Jamesburg, NJ will follow.
