“ Mom, What a honey! No complaints from a son in law....you never acted like I was told a "mother in law" would be. You were always "Fun and Caring". I know your favorite hymn was "In the Garden"....we sang it one evening while bonding in a back yard BBQ. When I sing those words it has and will always remind me of you. (verse included below)I come to the garden alone, While the dew is still on the roses, And the voice I hear, falling on my ear, The Son of God discloses.And He walks with me, and He talks with me, And He tells me I am His own, And the joy we share as we tarry there, None other has ever known.Love Tom (Patti's Tom)
