“ Dear Mary, I am so sorry for your loss and I want you to know that if you ever need a friend to lean on I am always here for you.

Jordan Koby - November 01, 2011 at 12:00 AM

“ I know my time is growing near to losing my own mother, and I can only imagine the terrible loss that must be felt. I'm so sorry to learn of your loss even though she met her wish and she is in a better place. May God Bless you Rich, and your family in this time of need.

“ I'm sure your mom is walking hand in hand with your dad. Something she hasn't done in so long. She's in a better place and free of pain. You were the best daughter anyone could have asked for. Hopefully, knowing that and knowing they are together will help you through the difficult days.

“ Mom, You were the best daughter, sister, friend, wife, mother, aunt & nana anyone could ever ask for. Everyone counted themselves lucky to know you. Don't forget your promise, to gently caress my cheek every once in awhile. Please know you'll never be far from my thoughts & I know you & daddy will look in on me from time to time! My heart is completely broken in two & it's going to take time before I feel whole again, but it's what you wanted and needed and God finally answered your prayers. I'm so proud to be your daughter, Love you "more", Mary

“ Hey Mom, HAVE to ask, did you walk or run to Dad? How is he? You're now free of MD and can finally resume the things you always did or wanted to do. Yours was a disease more on the mind than what Dad went through. It was a slow, very long wanting to do and not being able to. And despite all that you took care of your parents, Dad, me and Mary in ways no one could compare. You loved Susan, Brielle and Jonathan so. You were a great friend to all, and I mean, all your friends. And you prayed for everyone except yourself. Have you danced? How's Uncle Tommy, Aunt Audrey, Aunt Rosemary and so many others you lost over the years. I bet Nana Rose met you early! Though I'm so sorry you've left us, I know it's what you wanted even before but much more since Dad left us. And your prayers were answered finally. Asleep and in your home. We all miss you and are haveing your mass this saturday. Like Dad's. We all miss you. But we're all happy now that you are back with Richie and free to move and enjoy. Mary's doing well. We'll take care of her. I'm so happy, you're now happy. You're son who owes you so much, Richie

“ My sincere sympathies to all of Mrs Schnaars' family and friends. As I did w/ Mr Schnaars' photo gallery, I enjoyed viewing the photos of Margie & her family and friends. It was so nice to be reminded of how she always enjoyed being with them and how she wanted people engaged in her life -- She leaves us all w/ that as a lesson for us to continually incorporate into our lives. I know losing a Mom, friend &/or relation is a time of sadness but I hope you will rely on the many memories created to remember the joy & happiness you shared with her.
