“ Maria will always be one of my fondest memories of the 70s and 80s. Her myself and Cheryl were Always together. We shared so many good times and were there for each other thru good times and bad. We spent many days at that kitchen table on Herbert Ave. As the years past and we settled into our own lives we somehow became distant , but she was and always will be a big part of my heart. Love you Maria Thanks for the memories.
