

Mary Ann Lochan

July 22, 1961 - April 23, 2014

Mary Ann Lochan, age 52, of Edison, went to be with The Lord, Wednesday April 23, 2014 at Hackensack University Medical Center in Hackensack, NJ. Daughter of deceased parents, Jenevieve Joseph and Calvin Lochan, raised by admired grandmother Luciana Joseph. Mary was born in Soesdyke, Guyana on July 22, 1961. Mary migrated to New York at the tender age of 18, with ambitions for a better life. Mary worked passionately in Healthcare for over the past 20 years. Working in well known facilities such as: Saint Barnabas Hospital, Morristown Medical and Ambulatory Surgery Center in Mountainside NJ, where she devoted over a decade of impeccable work as a Supervisor in the Central Sterilization Unit. Filled with compassion and interest to help family and friends in need of love, comfort and support. Mary had a gift of giving and had a laugh that was contagious. Mary is survived by her 2 daughters Melanie Pineiro and Charlotte Zabihialam. Known as Gammie by her Grandchildren, Michael Alexa, Alicia and Preston. Brothers Marcellus and Gregory. Loved son-in-law Carlos Pineiro as well as many adored friends and family. Mary will be deeply missed and her legacy will live on.

“ For every life has a purpose which us humans can seldom infer. She was a gift from heaven, whose purpose was to make this world understand what love, friendship, goodness, and humbleness was all about. Goodness belongs to heaven, and she's watching you from there. May God comfort your hearts; and her soul rest in perfect peace. ~ Peter and Odessa Chow
