“ My deepest condolences and sympathies to the family, friends and loved ones of Mary Ellen. Passing from what Shakespeare called the “mortal coil” is always sad, and it is that much sadder when the “coil” has yet to fully unwind. Mary Ellen passed and left us far too suddenly, and far too soon, with many of her best years ahead of her. I will always have much appreciation for Mary Ellen, and her immediate family, Tony, June, and Richard, for being good friends with, and good company for, my mother, “Mrs. G.” I will also always have much appreciation and fond memories for all the times Mary Ellen and her family hosted myself, my mother, and my sister, Mary, at their Carroll Gardens home for fun-filled evenings of conversation, food, laughter, and game playing. Godspeed Mary Ellen. We hope you are resting in peace in a heavenly place.

“ Friends since kindergarten-so many stories. So many memories. Playing cards with Junie, my Mom and Joseph on Christmas Eve. Backgammon marathons and Spades and Hearts. Oh the passionate card games. Sharing a smile at Abuela’s house watching Nicole playing with Alex and Michael. Our shared joy at the young adults they’ve become.

And always knowing she would make time for you whenever called.

An amazing woman, a loving Mom, a beloved aunt and a true friend. Be at peace.
