“ My deepest sympathy to the Simon and Pordan families. Your Mom was such an important part of my childhood, teen and adult years. The photo album tapestry of my life are woven with pictures of your Mom. She never failed to make me laugh. I will always remember her as a gentle spirit and a woman of tolerance and good humor.

“ Dear Pat, Rick, Steve and Diane- I am so so sorry to hear the sad news about Mary- she was such a very wonderful, caring person, and will hold a most special place in my heart forever. I have such loving memories of her throughout my entire life, and was blessed to have shared so many holidays and special occasions with her. Mary was always there, as she will always be for me, just in a different way now. She will be greatly missed by all who knew her.

Much love, Joe
