“ How can I begin to share all the wonderful memories I have of Michael. He was a best friend to my husband for over 40 years, and they certainly knew how to have a good time, singing and playing the tambourine! Many a Christmas was spent around their dinner table, and many New Years Eve were filled with laughter and good wishes. Then there were all the Saturday dinner dates. Even after my husband's passing, Michael was sure to call and check in, and we would always have a good laugh.

May he truly rest in peace for he truly loved and served the Lord.

My thoughts and prayers are with Marilyn, Karen Debbie and Michael.

With deep love,

Karen Lehrhaupt

“ Mike was a very kind and caring person, always taking the time to say hello, asking how you and your family were doing and interested to hear what you had to say, what you were doing or where you were coming from or going to on vacation. He had a way to make you (and everyone) feel special. I will miss those engaging moments, every Saturday night before Mass, when we would speak for a few brief moments in the church vestibule (I'm an usher at that Mass) as he was leaving church to go home. I wished I had gotten to know him better! You will certainly be missed and my thoughts and prayers go out to your family. Rest eternally in God's love and peace :)
