

Michelle Micari

April 23, 1955 - August 12, 2024

Michelle Micari, 69 of Matawan, New Jersey passed away on Monday, August 12, 2024, at Bayshore Community Hospital in Holmdel.

Born Saturday, April 23, 1955 in Brooklyn, New York, Michelle was the daughter of the late Frank and Alicia Palagonia.

Michelle was raised in the Coney Island section of Brooklyn, and was a graduate of Fontbonne Hall Academy.

Michelle lived in Brooklyn for most of her life. At a young age Michelle met Robert Micari, and though they were friends, life would lead them in different directions. Michelle went on to work as a make up artist and fragrance supervisor with Clinique and Sears. She would have a daughter, Alexandria, and raise her in Brooklyn. Eventually Michelle and Robert would reunite and marry. They would continue to live in Brooklyn, until 2016 when they settled in Aberdeen.

Michelle had a life changing cancer diagnosis. She would continue to fight for years, and was a strong advocate for others that were battling cancer. Michelle was an active member of the MBC Thrivers support group.

Michelle was a great conversationalist, who always loved talking with people either in person or on the phone. She enjoyed shopping, and traveling, and enjoyed all the finer things life had to offer. Michelle was a loving and caring woman who will be deeply missed by all those that were blessed to have her in their lives.

Michelle was predeceased by her beloved husband Robert, by her loving parents Frank and Alicia Palagonia, and by her caring sister Donna Van Green.

Michelle is survived by her beloved daughter, Alexandria Maestrallis, and her husband Michael, by her cherished grandchildren, Olivia and Nico, by her caring sister Anita Orbeta, and by her cancer sisters, Fontbonne Hall Academy sisters, and many friends.

“ I "met" Michelle on the Pink Sister Facebook page. She was Vibrant and Full of Life. I always found strength in her posts and life happenings. Her positivity helped me to be stronger and not be afraid to voice my opinion. She helped make this journey easier for many. Rest In Heaven with Robert, Michelle. Your Memory WILL Live forever!

“ I never had the pleasure of meeting Michelle in person. However having breast cancer myself, I talked to Michelle, and we shared stories. She wanted so much to kick cancer's ass, and boy did she try. She was a warrior, a fighter, caring, and had so much to live for. She tried every trial that was out there to keep her going. She fought for us, went to every convention, and as sick as she was, it didn't let it stop her. She was and will forever be a legend. Spread those pink angel wings my friend. You definitely deserve them. You are now pain free. We lost you, but heaven gained an angel. RIP my friend.

“ I met Michelle when I was in NY for my mom's birthday in 2012. She was a beautiful person. Although over the years we didn't talk much she was always thought about. RIP
